

The Personal Service Contract Review Board is pleased to announce the release of new Rules and Regulations with an effective date of May 1, 2010. The PSCRB has completed a comprehensive review, update and comment period for these revisions. The revisions have been made to improve the Rules and Regulations in terms of consistency and ease of reference, and to make them current. The PSCRB Rules and Regulations apply to all contracts for personal services which come under the purview of the PSCRB as provided by Mississippi Code Annotated § 25-9-120, and other pertinent laws.

Beginning May 1, 2010 the revised PSCRB Rules and Regulations supersede all previous versions and are located on the Mississippi State Personnel Board web site at <http://www.mspb.ms.gov>. As an official product of state government, this document is in the public domain and may be copied or redistributed without restriction.
